EXPEDITION FOR REVOLVING NORTHERN MEXICO.

The Galveston News of the 6th inst has a letter from one of its editors, dated New Orleans, March 12, from which the following is an extract—

"The steamship Moses Taylor, at this port from Aspinwall, brings us two weeks later news from California and about sea and a half million of gold. The advices received on the gold products of California are of the most encouraging character."

The Assistant Treasurer reports to day as follows—

Total receipt, including $67,000 from Customs. $101,265.

Payments.....$6,182,47

Balance.....$1,036,867

The annexed is a comparative statement of the imports of foreign dry goods at New York for the week and since Jan. 1.

For the week.....1856.....1558
